the village VOICE

CLAY KETTER: An American-born artist who lives in Sweden shows his prefabricated non-functional kitchen units and abstract shelves. Opens 4/3, through 5/8. Sonnabend, 420 W Bway, 966-6160.

PATTY CHANG: Photographs, video, and an installation, with live performances on Saturday afternoons from 2 to 4 p.m., by an artist whose work is about anticipation, exertion, and "dis-integrated memory." Through 4/24. Jack Tilton, 49 Greene, 941-1776.

"CONCEPTUAL ART AS NEUROBIOLOGICAL PRAXIS": A cerebral group show about the brain, curated by Warren Neidich, includes Ricci Albenda, Rainier Ganahl, ♦ SAMM KUNCE: Five tons of sand and water (and moss) went into the double Dune, a majestic indoor installation that's as much about Minimalist form and hidden support systems as it is about Mother Nature and Land Art. Through 4/3. John Gibson, 568 Bway, 925-1192.

♦ BARRY MCCREE: See the Short List. Through

JANINE ANTONI: Through 4/17. Luhring Augustine, 531 W 24th, 206-9100.

SÜKRAN AZIZ: "Room for Rent," an interactive installation
